5 - WINE MAKING WORKSHOP

Welcome to the Loire Valley!

In the beautiful region of Western France, the Loire river runs through one of France's richest regions. Known as the Garden of France, the Loire Valley boasts many important sites and historical châteaux, royal hunting grounds for the Kings of France.

Producing original, varied and exquisite wines, the region is divided into smaller appellations (such as Anjou, Bourgueil, Saumur, and Touraine, to name but a few) spread over 1000 for kms; with 54 appellations, there is a wine for every taste and every occasion.

This region is also well-known for its many historical figures, from Joan of Arc to Richard the Lionheart and Leonardo Da Vinci.

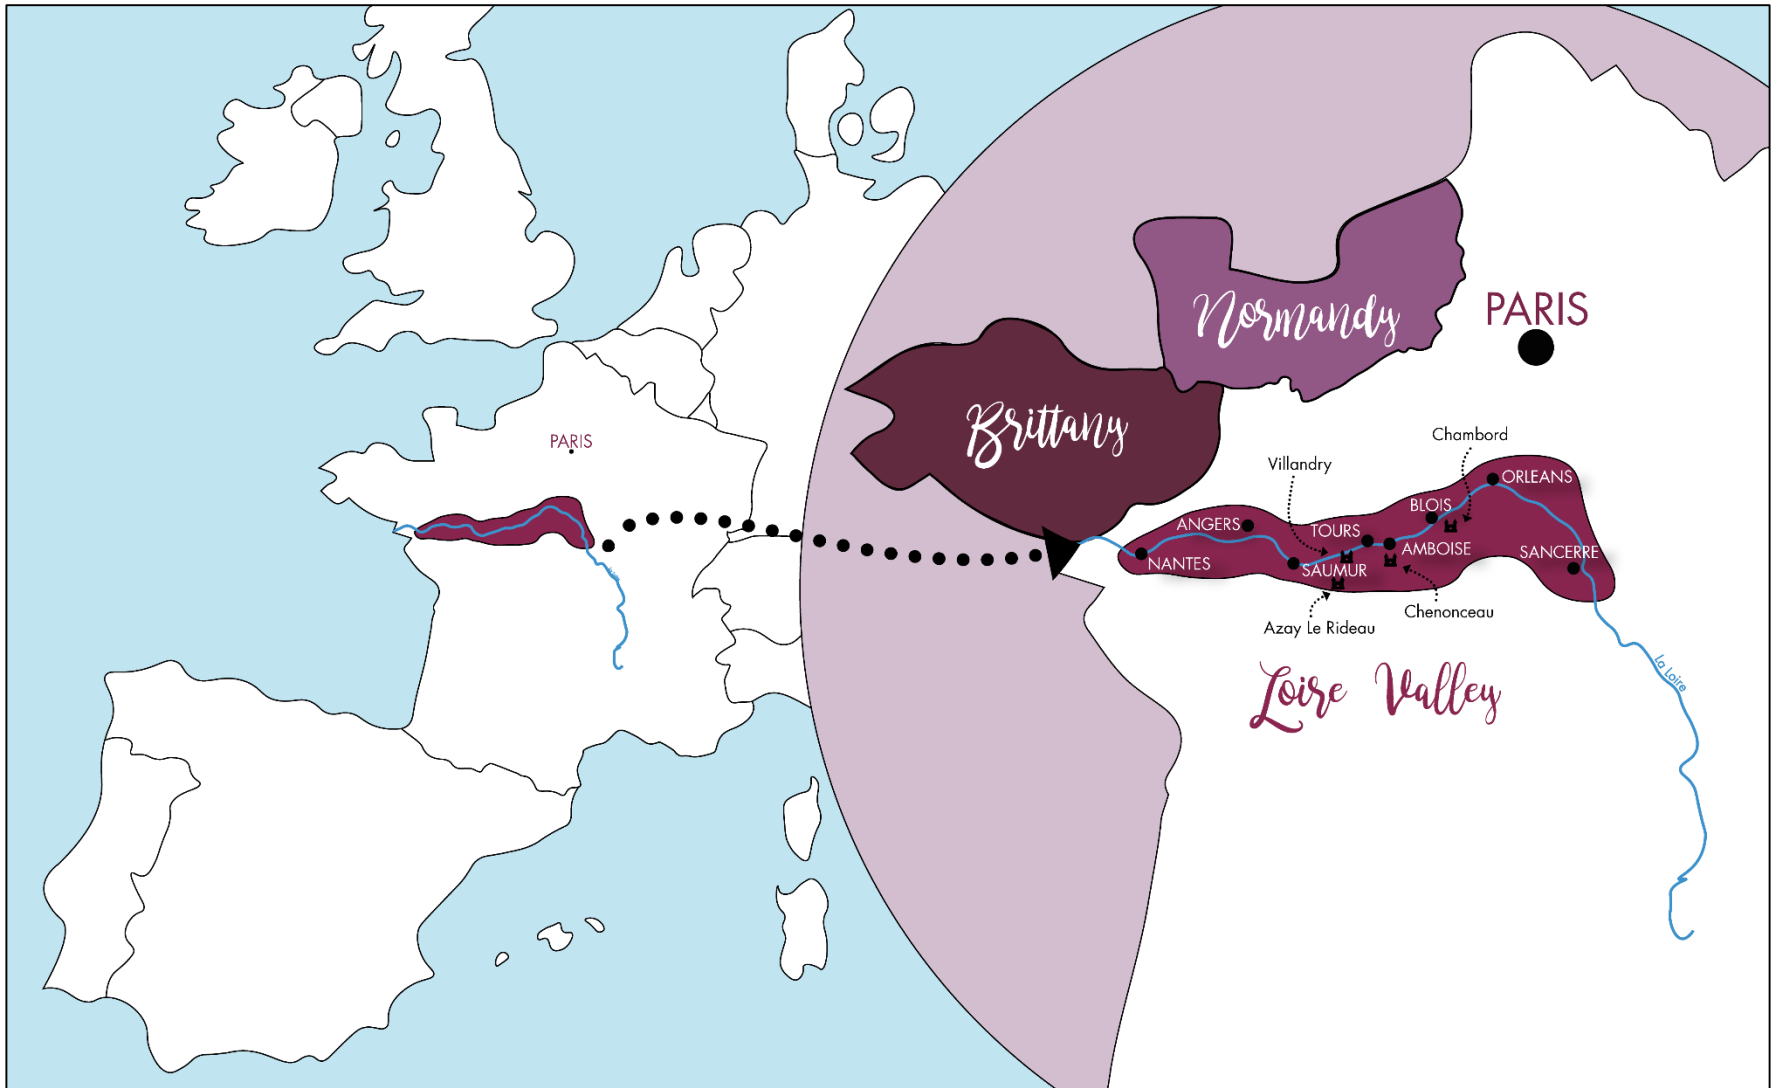

In 2000, the Val de Loire was awarded the status of UNESCO World Heritage Site in recognition of the exceptional cultural value of its landscapes and the quality of its architectural heritage.

Why travel with Loire Secrets?

Wine making workshop

Wine making workshop

Fan of wine? Whether you are a fine connoisseur or simply a wine lover this fun workshop is for you!

Start with a Loire Valley wines introduction and learn more about the large diversity of wines in the region and understand the wine making process.

With the help of a friendly wine expert, you'll get to taste and pick the grape varieties you want in your wine, then blend, try, taste again, improve and ultimately create your very own wine.

Now you get your blend, time to create your own label for your wine and enjoy your first cuvée!
