9 - BREAD BAKING WORKSHOP

Welcome to the Loire Valley!

In the beautiful region of Western France, the Loire river runs through one of France's richest regions. Known as the Garden of France, the Loire Valley boasts many important sites and historical châteaux, royal hunting grounds for the Kings of France.

Producing original, varied and exquisite wines, the region is divided into smaller appellations (such as Anjou, Bourgueil, Saumur, and Touraine, to name but a few) spread over 1000 for kms; with 54 appellations, there is a wine for every taste and every occasion.

This region is also well-known for its many historical figures, from Joan of Arc to Richard the Lionheart and Leonardo Da Vinci.

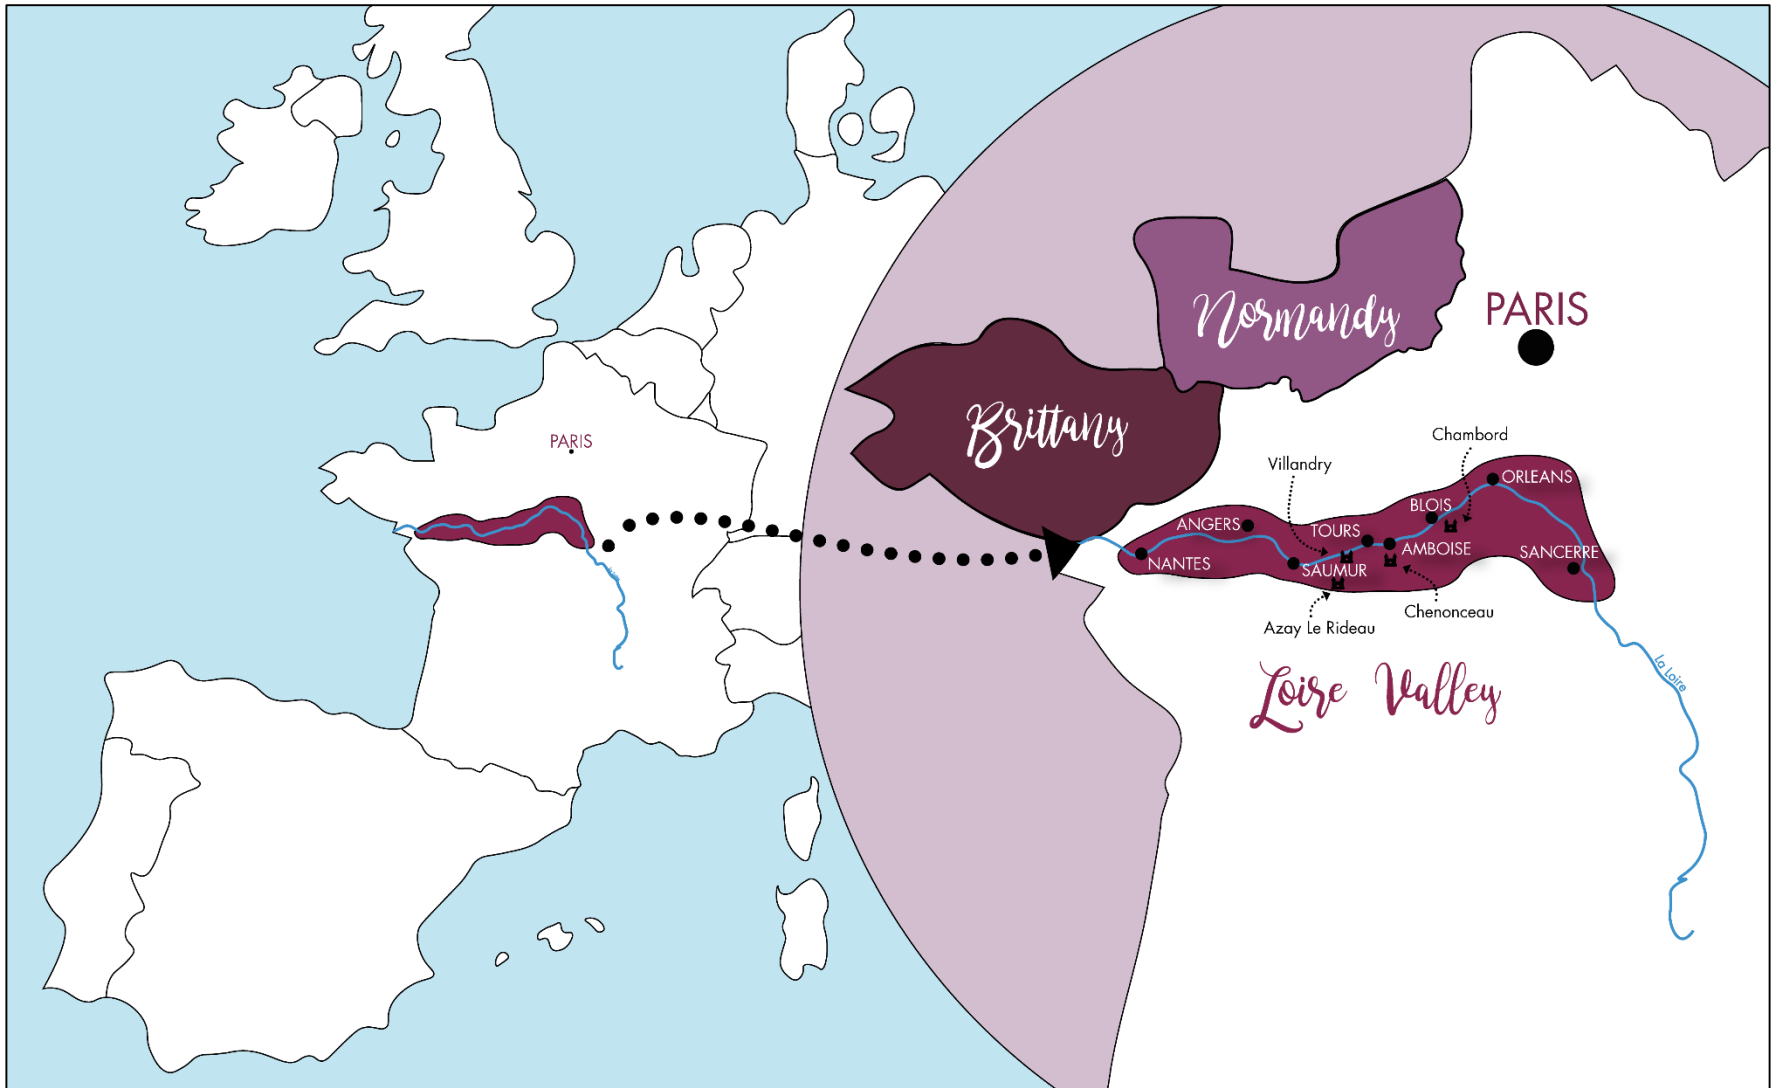

In 2000, the Val de Loire was awarded the status of UNESCO World Heritage Site in recognition of the exceptional cultural value of its landscapes and the quality of its architectural heritage.

Bread baking workshop

Bread baking workshop

Start your day with a morning bread workshop.

WORKSHOP IN A CHARMING COUNTRY HOUSE IN LOIRE VALLEY

Throw away your bread machines and the « ready-to-go » bread sets: this is about time and sensations. Making homemade bread is a matter of patience and technique. But in the end, what a pleasure to get out of the oven a fresh baguette just for you, golden and ready to sing on the kitchen table!

During this session, you will learn how to make your own sourdough, take home and maintain regularly to maintain its strength and flavor. You'll learn to master the techniques of bread, brioche and croissants and have all the time to question the different ingredients that come into play.

A homemade lunch will be served and prepared by the participants with fresh ingredients and vegetables straight from the garden.
